

2022

The York Design Awards now enter their 14th year and the search for York's best designed new buildings, spaces and conservation projects is on again.

The aim of the Awards is to encourage and promote excellence in design and conservation, striving for the highest standards which will delight present and future generations.

These prestigious Awards are open to all developments within the City of York Council boundary, completed within the last five years (2017 onwards).

NOTE: Schemes previously submitted cannot be re-entered.

The Judges are independent & eminent in their chosen fields of architecture, planning, development and conservation. The Chair is Andy Davey, senior partner at nationally renowned architectural practice Simpson & Brown. His fellow judges are Professor Brian Edwards from the University of Edinburgh; conservation architect Janine Riley; and Nicky Watson, Director of award-winning JDDK Architects in Newcastle.

The Awards are supported each year by The Rt. Hon. the Lord Mayor of York

A steering committee runs the awards but is completely independent of the judging process.

In 2022, the Awards will receive sponsorship from organisations including:
